RANKIN-MONTY BOUT LOOKS

LIKE GOOD EXHIBITION Monty and Rankin come together onight at the Moose smoker for the rs: time in the boxing career of each. Loth men are local boys and although testing the has done much boxing for the past year each claims he is as strong as ever and as fast. Rankin has not had the ring experience that Monty has but it is not always the experience that when the strong in a court even are and the exhibition should prove well worth seeing.

The bout between Young Lyons of Central Village and Young Rabineau of Woonsecket brings together two boys who are strangers to the local of the three games which was the high fatts but from various reports that one man score of the day.

L. Garber and E. Franz of Pittsburgh, Bibeault and Heberd won the boys who have reached here they should put up

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

New York, March 20.—Secretary Foster and ten of the players signed by the New York National League club left here tonight over the Pennsylvania railroad for the training camp at Gainesville, Fla. Other players will join the party at Philadelphia and Washington or will go direct from their homes to Gainesville, where Mc-Graw and Matthewson will be await-ing their arrival

A party of Brooklyn fans saw three of the Ebbets players and some local newspapermen off on the steamer Comanche, enroute to Jacksonville, Fla., this afternoon. Manager Wilbert Rob-inson and four of his staff reached the southern quarters yesterday.

Atlantic City, N. J., March 20.—Rid Norfolk, light heavyweight, had the better of the scheduled eight round bout with Jim Hosic of Atlantic City tonight. There was much holding during the fight and Norfolk won be-cause he showed more experience than bas but it is not always the expericase that counts in a short round exhibition. Bankin is fast and should have a little on Monty in height and reach, but Monty will have the advaniage of weight. There is not much choice in the style of the two men and the exhibition should prove well worth seeing.
